

ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL

Beware!!! The Constitution specifically provides for "assistance of counsel" and DOES NOT SAY REPRESENTATION BY AN ATTORNEY!!!

I, Robert James Fox, have been assistance of counsel sitting right beside defendants at the defense table in federal court cases in Texas, Oklahoma, Arizona, Florida, and Wisconsin. The following information details and verifies my participation in federal court in five different states:

A) USA v. Kenneth O'Kane in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas (Houston), CASE #: 4:03-cr-00092, Judge Melinda Harmon on 6/2/03;

B) USA v. Richard Maynor Blackstock in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma (Tulsa), CASE #: 4:06-cr-00062-TCK, Judge Terence Kern, on 10/3/06;

C) USA v. Gale Lawrence Webb in the U.S. District Court for the District of Arizona (Phoenix), CASE #: 2:06-cv-01608-NVW, Judge Neil V. Wake on 4/9/07;

D) USA v. Hernan Prada, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida (Miami), CASE #: 04-20446-CR-Jordan, Judge Adalberto Jordan on 8/20/07;

E) USA v. Frederick George Kriemelmeyer, in the U.S. District Court for Wisconsin (Madison), CASE #: 07-CR-52BBC, Judge Barbara B. Crabb on 11/19/07.

In the above referenced Texas event, the O'Kane case, in an obviously sincere effort to show no bias and prejudice against Mr. O'Kane, Judge Melinda Harmon allowed non-attorneys Michael Hawkins, Richard Taylor, and myself at the defense table during the trial.
