

TRIAL SUMMARY

MARCH 27 – APRIL 2, 2012

In Re: Case 17387

STATE OF TEXAS § 2nd Judicial District Court
 § The State of Texas
V. § The County of Cherokee
ROBERT JAMES FOX

Sunday, March 25 Traveled to Rusk in Cherokee County in order to be chipper for meeting with Grand Jury

Monday, March 26 I waited at the Grand Jury door, however I was spotted by District Attorney Elmer Beckworth's assistant, so Beckworth's Investigator Randy Hatch promptly appeared positioning himself just a few feet away with his gun and looking like a Bengal Tiger ready to pounce upon me, so when I asked a man whether he was the grand jury foreman Randy Hatch was immediately on me telling me I was not allowed to speak to the grand jury; I assured them that the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure provides for me to address the grand jury as per their oath!!! Randy Hatch's response was that he did not give a damn about the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, and there was no way that I was going to be able to address the grand jury!!!

Art. 20.09. DUTIES OF GRAND JURY.

The grand jury shall inquire into all offenses liable to indictment of which any member may have knowledge, or of which they shall be informed by the attorney representing the State, or any other credible person.

Tuesday, March 27 The trial started with a jury selected back on March 19 and the State presented their witnesses:

Smith County Deputy Clerk Darleen Hawkins

Smith County Clerk Judy Carnes (Retired)

Betty Thompson, Jacksonville City Secretary

Pretend Jacksonville Police Department, Defective Detective Jason Price

Wednesday, March 28 The State continued with Defective Detective Jason Price, whom I cross-examined to show that he should be in prison for his false accusations which he repeatedly utilized to jail me on utterly bogus charges.

The State rested, and I put on my first witness, Judy Scott, who was spectacular and made Defective Detective Jason Price look quite goofy as Judy clearly showed
